

PLease continue to stop people from calling my home univited. Americans must be able to protect there privacy. With todays technologies, companies can overwhelm homes with electronic intrusions. I also think that the telephone companies should share the resposibilties of protecting us from mass telecommunications from automated hubs.